If the tide is low, you can walk along the white, sandy causeway joining the neighbouring island. Next to Chicken Island, natural landmark, named after the shape of its unique limestone rock jutting out into the sea. Excellent snorkelling opportunities in warm, inviting waters, rich in coral life. Then, next to Poda Island, stunning jewel of the Andaman sea with both lowland, picturesque bamboo plantation and majestic, rocky cliffs, bordered by long, beautiful beach. Lunch at the beach and break. Last is Phranang Beach, secluded peninsular, inaccessible by car. Just a short walk away is a Princess Cave with decorative spirit house. Free time for sun-bathing, swimming, photography and exploring.
